

5/12/19 | Out of the Dust: How a Godly Man Treats a Woman

"Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind." —Romans 12:2a | NIV

1. Have you ever found yourself following a crowd? Have you ever agreed just because everyone else had the same opinion? Explain.
2. What are cultural norms for men and women that believers should embrace?
3. What are cultural norms for men and women that believers should reject?
4. What stuck out to you from the sermon this week? Explain.

Called to Godliness

5. Read 1 Timothy 4:7-8. What is the value of godliness? Why should a man want to be godly?
6. What is the appeal of being a worldly man?
7. Read 1 John 2:15-17. What is wrong with following the world?
8. Read Proverbs 31:28-31. How are children to treat their mother?

How is a husband to treat his wife?

How are people at the city gate to treat a woman?
9. Read Colossians 3:19. What sort of behaviors are normal in society

but are against this verse?

Two Gentlemen

10. Read Exodus 2:15-17. How did Moses treat those seven daughters? How did they treat him?
11. Should Moses have been excused from chivalry because he did not know the women and because they were Midianites? Explain.
12. Read Exodus 2:18-21. What was the outcome of the story?
13. What can men today learn from Moses about how to treat women?
14. Read Matthew 1:18-19. How did Joseph treat Mary?
15. Should Joseph have been excused from chivalry because he knew Mary? Explain.
16. Read Matthew 1:20-25. What was the outcome of the story?
17. What can men today learn from Joseph about how to treat women?
18. How did Moses and Joseph stand out from other men?
19. How can you use their stories to be a godly man (or godly woman) this week?

TAKEAWAY: Godly men treat women in a way that honors God.
Women, God loves you!