CORE52 | #6 Jesus and Moses

Deuteronomy 18:18

December 17 & 20, 2020

I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their fellow Israelites, and I will put my words in his mouth. He will tell them everything I command him.
Deuteronomy 18:18 | NIV

Is the phrase “What goes around, comes around” a phrase you have used often?

It is usually positive or negative?

Could it be used in a positive context?

What are some examples of Type and Anti-Type that Seth talked about? (If you or your group missed the sermon, feel free to skip this question.)

Are you a risk taker?

What are the good things about being a risk taker?

What are the bad things about being a risk taker?

Whether you are a natural risk taker or not, what is a risk you have taken in the past year?

What is your favorite movie about the life of Moses?

What are the major parts (or stories) about the life of Moses? What is your favorite part about Moses life? (Exodus 2...)

Which of these excuses that Moses made can you relate to the most as a Christian?

I’m Inadequate

I’m Uninformed

I’m unprepared

I’m Tongue-Tied

I’m not Available

If you are to talk to someone about Jesus, or becoming a Christian, which of God’s answers help you the most?

I will be with you

I will be whatever you need

You already have what you need

I will give you the words to say

Don’t make excuses.

In your life, how do you cling to comfort?

How are excuses immobilizing?

How have you grown when you have left comfort?

How do you share your ...

Time?

Talent?

Treasure?

Faith?

Family?

What are some things that you could see better through the lens of Jesus? How can you do that?
