

Honored By All

Purity, Genesis 2:24-25

January 28, 2024

Read James 1:16-17 and Matthew 4:1-4.

1. Is sex one of the good and perfect gifts created by God?
  - How has Satan twisted it to change the nature of the gift?
  - Does Satan do something similar with other gifts created by God?

Read Proverbs 5:15-23.

2. What's the irony in these words from Solomon?
  - Since Solomon didn't practice what he preached, does that mean we don't really have to, either? Why or why not?

Read 1 Corinthians 6:18-20.

3. Who bought your body, and what was the price?
  - What are the implications for you as a temporary caretaker of your physical body?

Read Song of Solomon 7:9-11.

4. Why is it good for married couples to get away from distractions, either for a date night or a weekend, to focus on each other?
5. Think about this past week. How much time did you think about (or spend on) your job, children, hobbies, travel plans, or chores?
  - How much time did you devote to your spouse?
  - What are the benefits of being able to take a spouse for granted (knowing you can count on your spouse)?
  - Are there warning signs when you've been taking a spouse for granted for too long?

Honored By All

Purity, Genesis 2:24-25

January 28, 2024

Read James 1:16-17 and Matthew 4:1-4.

1. Is sex one of the good and perfect gifts created by God?
  - How has Satan twisted it to change the nature of the gift?
  - Does Satan do something similar with other gifts created by God?

Read Proverbs 5:15-23.

2. What's the irony in these words from Solomon?
  - Since Solomon didn't practice what he preached, does that mean we don't really have to, either? Why or why not?

Read 1 Corinthians 6:18-20.

3. Who bought your body, and what was the price?
  - What are the implications for you as a temporary caretaker of your physical body?

Read Song of Solomon 7:9-11.

4. Why is it good for married couples to get away from distractions, either for a date night or a weekend, to focus on each other?
5. Think about this past week. How much time did you think about (or spend on) your job, children, hobbies, travel plans, or chores?
  - How much time did you devote to your spouse?
  - What are the benefits of being able to take a spouse for granted (knowing you can count on your spouse)?
  - Are there warning signs when you've been taking a spouse for granted for too long?

