

His Final Teachings
The Upper Room, John 13
March 3, 2024

1. Have you ever done a job that you consider particularly dirty or unpleasant? Would you be willing to do it again, and why or why not?

2. Can you recall when someone went out of their way to serve you, even if it meant doing something they didn't want to do? How did their act of service impact you emotionally?

3. In John's account of the foot-washing, why do you think he mentions the presence of Judas? Were you surprised to learn that Judas was present during the foot-washing, and if so, why?

4. How do you interpret Jesus washing Judas' feet with the other disciples? Does this aspect of the story hold any special meaning for you, and if so, why?

5. What excuses might we make for not following Jesus' example of serving others, and what do these excuses reveal about our priorities and values?

6. After reading Philippians 2:4-11, what would it look like for you to adopt the attitude of Christ in your own life? What kinds of selfish attitudes must you let go of to do so?

7. When you think about the people in your life, how can you practically serve them meaningfully and impactfully?

His Final Teachings
The Upper Room, John 13
March 3, 2024

1. Have you ever done a job that you consider particularly dirty or unpleasant? Would you be willing to do it again, and why or why not?

2. Can you recall when someone went out of their way to serve you, even if it meant doing something they didn't want to do? How did their act of service impact you emotionally?

3. In John's account of the foot-washing, why do you think he mentions the presence of Judas? Were you surprised to learn that Judas was present during the foot-washing, and if so, why?

4. How do you interpret Jesus washing Judas' feet with the other disciples? Does this aspect of the story hold any special meaning for you, and if so, why?

5. What excuses might we make for not following Jesus' example of serving others, and what do these excuses reveal about our priorities and values?

6. After reading Philippians 2:4-11, what would it look like for you to adopt the attitude of Christ in your own life? What kinds of selfish attitudes must you let go of to do so?

7. When you think about the people in your life, how can you practically serve them meaningfully and impactfully?

