

BIBLE STUDY DISCUSSION GUIDE
AT THE MOVIES: Week Four
July 27, 2025

Read Together. Judges 6:11-16 and Judges 7:1-22

Discussion Questions:

1. What circumstances were the Israelites facing when God called Gideon (Judges 6:1-6)?

What does this tell us about their spiritual and physical condition?

2. How did Gideon initially respond to God's call in Judges 6:12-15?

What excuses or doubts did he express?

3. Why did God reduce Gideon's army from 32,000 to 300 (Judges 7:2-7)?

What does this decision reveal about how God works?

4. Gideon saw himself as the weakest in his family and tribe (Judges 6:15). Have you ever felt like that? How did it affect your willingness to step out in faith?

5. How does it feel to hear that God called Gideon a "mighty warrior" before he ever fought a battle (Judges 6:12)?

6. What might God be speaking over your life right now that you struggle to believe?

7. In what ways do you relate to Gideon's fear and hesitation, even after God clearly called him?

8. Where in your life do you feel outnumbered, unqualified, or overwhelmed?

How might God be inviting you to trust Him in that space?

9. Gideon obeyed God in stages: tearing down idols, trimming the army, following a strange battle plan. What is one small act of obedience God may be asking of you this week?

10. The Gospel reminds us the battle is already won through Jesus. How does that truth change the way you face spiritual battles or personal challenges?

11. Who in your life needs encouragement to see themselves the way God sees them? How can you speak life to them this week?

Closing Thought. God often uses the least likely people in the most unexpected ways. And not to display their strength, but His. Like Gideon, you don't have to be fearless to follow, just faithful.

BIBLE STUDY DISCUSSION GUIDE
AT THE MOVIES: Week Four
July 27, 2025

Read Together. Judges 6:11-16 and Judges 7:1-22

Discussion Questions:

1. What circumstances were the Israelites facing when God called Gideon (Judges 6:1-6)?

What does this tell us about their spiritual and physical condition?

2. How did Gideon initially respond to God's call in Judges 6:12-15?

What excuses or doubts did he express?

3. Why did God reduce Gideon's army from 32,000 to 300 (Judges 7:2-7)?

What does this decision reveal about how God works?

4. Gideon saw himself as the weakest in his family and tribe (Judges 6:15). Have you ever felt like that? How did it affect your willingness to step out in faith?

5. How does it feel to hear that God called Gideon a "mighty warrior" before he ever fought a battle (Judges 6:12)?

6. What might God be speaking over your life right now that you struggle to believe?

7. In what ways do you relate to Gideon's fear and hesitation, even after God clearly called him?

8. Where in your life do you feel outnumbered, unqualified, or overwhelmed?

How might God be inviting you to trust Him in that space?

9. Gideon obeyed God in stages: tearing down idols, trimming the army, following a strange battle plan. What is one small act of obedience God may be asking of you this week?

10. The Gospel reminds us the battle is already won through Jesus. How does that truth change the way you face spiritual battles or personal challenges?

11. Who in your life needs encouragement to see themselves the way God sees them? How can you speak life to them this week?

Closing Thought. God often uses the least likely people in the most unexpected ways. And not to display their strength, but His. Like Gideon, you don't have to be fearless to follow, just faithful.