WHEN KINGDOMS COLLIDE:
Beyond the Trumpets | Revelation 8:6–11:19
October 25, 2026

Message Summary.
The trumpets reveal God's judgment, His patience, and the certainty of Jesus' reign. When things look out of control, God is still in control. His patience gives us room to repent, and He confronts evil and brings redemption through Jesus. Step back and see the whole picture: Jesus is coming. Live ready and help someone else get ready.

Key Scripture Summaries.
Revelation 8:6-12 | The first four trumpets bring judgments on creation.
Revelation 9:1-5, 13-15 | Destructive forces face restrictions; timing shows God remains in control.
Revelation 9:20-21 | Survivors of the plagues still refuse to turn from idolatry and sin.
Romans 2:4-5 and 2 Peter 3:9 | God's kindness and patience call us to repentance, not complacency.
Revelation 11:15, 19 | Jesus will reign forever; the ark reminds us of God's covenant faithfulness.

Start Talking.
1. When has stepping back helped you see a situation differently?
2. What kinds of news or uncertainty tend to get your attention most?
3. Have you ever received a wake-up call that led to a positive change?

Start Thinking.
- Why is it helpful to ask, "What does this show us about God?" when Revelation's imagery gets confusing?
- Read Revelation 8:6-12. What might the repeated limit of "a third" reveal?
- Read Revelation 9:1-5, 13-15. What restrictions and timing do you notice? What do they show about God's control?
- Read Revelation 9:20-21 and Romans 2:4-5. Why might people resist repentance even after warnings or kindness?
- Read 2 Peter 3:9. How does this verse reshape the way we think about the wait for Jesus' return?
- Read Revelation 11:15, 19. How do Jesus' reign and God's covenant faithfulness help us see the whole picture?

DISCUSSION GUIDE

Start Sharing.
1. Which part of this week's message most challenged or encouraged you?
2. Where does life feel out of control right now? What would trusting God look like in that situation this week?
3. What do you depend on for security? How can you recognize when it is taking the place of trust in Jesus?
4. When have you experienced God's patience? How did you respond, and what did you learn about Him?
5. What attitude, habit, compromise, or hidden sin do you need to surrender to Jesus? What makes it hard to respond today?
6. Who came to mind when you heard, "Help someone else get ready"? What step could you take toward them this week?

Start Praying.
Jesus, help us trust You when life feels out of control. Thank You for Your patience and forgiveness. Show us what we need to surrender, and give us courage to repent and obey today. Help us see the people who need Your hope. Open a door for us to share what You have done. Teach us to live ready and help someone else get ready. Amen.

Start Doing.
- Read Revelation 8:6–9:21, 11:15-19. Ask: "What does this show me about God, and why can I trust Him?"
- Surrender one thing to Jesus. Name a specific response of repentance and obedience.
- Write down one person's name. Pray for them. Send a text, make a call, share your story, or invite them to church.
