WHEN KINGDOMS COLLIDE

Follow the Lamb

November 22, 2026

Message Summary.

Following Jesus means trusting Him enough to obey wherever He leads, even when obedience costs us something. Because God is faithful, merciful, and just, we can remain devoted to Jesus, worship Him above everything else, take His warnings seriously, and trust Him with the outcome. We belong to the Lamb because He has redeemed us, and we are called to follow Him wherever He goes.

Key Scripture Summaries.

Revelation 14:1–5 | Those who belong to Jesus bear His name and follow Him wherever He goes. He has redeemed them, and their identity is found in Him.

Revelation 14:6–12 | God calls everyone to worship Him and turn away from sin. We are called to remain faithful to Jesus and take His warnings seriously.

Revelation 14:13 | Those who die in the Lord are blessed. God sees their faithfulness, and their labor will not be forgotten.

Revelation 14:14–20 | Jesus is the crowned King who will bring evil and injustice to judgment. We can trust Him with the outcome.

Start Talking.

1. When have you ever tried to do something your own way instead of following the directions? How did that turn out?
2. Why do you think following Jesus can become difficult when He asks us to do something we don't want to do?
3. What does it mean to follow Jesus wherever He goes?

Start Thinking.

- What does it mean that we belong to Jesus and bear His name? How should that shape the way we live?
- Why is it important to remember that Jesus has redeemed us before talking about how we are called to live?
- Why does God warn us about sin and judgment?
- Why do you think God gives us warnings about sin and judgment? How do those warnings show His mercy?
- What does it look like to remain faithful to Jesus when following Him becomes difficult or unpopular?
- How does knowing God sees our faithfulness encourage us?
- Why can we trust God to handle injustice?

Start Sharing.

1. Is there an area of your life where you find yourself following Jesus only as long as it's comfortable?
2. What is something you might be holding back from surrendering to Jesus?
3. Where do you feel the greatest pressure to compromise your faith or give something else your devotion?
4. Is there a situation where you need to trust God with the outcome instead of trying to take control yourself?
5. What is one step you have been avoiding that Jesus is asking you to take this week?

Start Praying.

Father, thank You for redeeming us through Jesus. Help us follow Him wherever He leads, remain faithful when life gets difficult, and surrender every part of our lives to You. Give us courage to take the next step and trust You with the outcome. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Start Doing.

Choose one or two to practice this week:

- Take the next step: Identify one area where you need to obey Jesus and take action.
- Surrender Control: Give Jesus one area of your life you've been holding back.
- Worship Daily:Find one way to honor God through your actions this week. .
- Trust God: Release a hurt or frustration to God instead of seeking revenge.
- Encourage Someone: Reach out to someone who needs encouragement to keep following Jesus.